

CEREDIGION COUNTY COUNCIL

Report to: Council

Date of meeting: 27th January 2022

Title: Elected Member Role Descriptors

Purpose of the report: For Council to consider and agree upon a revised suite of model Elected Member Role Descriptors produced by the Welsh Local Government Association (WLGA)

For: Decision

Cabinet Portfolio and Cabinet Member: Councillor Ray Quant MBE, Cabinet Member for Legal and Governance, People and Organisation and Democratic Services

Background

The Welsh Local Government Association (WLGA) have produced a revised set of Member Role Descriptions in association with Member and Local Authority Officers. The generic role descriptors which set out the responsibilities and functions of the role of the elected member are available as a suggestion rather than prescription. Elected Members have a wide range of roles and responsibilities which they are expected to undertake, and the role descriptions aim to provide a framework and guidance upon these responsibilities and a range of activities that Members undertake.

The Council first adopted the generic WLGA Role Descriptors in July 2012. These have remained largely unchanged since then, but have recently been reviewed and updated by the WLGA in consultation with Heads of Democratic Services across Wales. The amendments reflect changes to legislation.

Appendix A outlines the amendments made to each to the role descriptors and the full versions for the following roles are included in Appendix B of the report:

- Elected Member
- Leader (and Deputy)
- Cabinet Member
- Chair of the Council
- Chair of Democratic Services Committee
- Member of Democratic Services Committee
- Chair of Regulatory Committee
- Member of Regulatory Committee
- Chair of Standards Committee
- Member of Standards Committee
- Chair of Governance and Audit Committee
- Member of Governance and Audit Committee
- Overview and Scrutiny Chair

- Overview and Scrutiny Member
- Leader of the Opposition
- Political Group Leader
- Member Champion Purpose and Role
- Member Champion Role Description.

The revised role descriptors were considered by the Democratic Services Committee at its meeting on 15th October 2021, and the Committee was asked to consider whether they wanted to accept the generic versions, or if they wished to tailor any of the model role descriptions to ensure that they accurately reflect the nature of such roles within the context of Ceredigion County Council. The Democratic Services Committee recommended the generic versions for approval by Council.

Conclusion

If the role descriptors are approved by Council, it is proposed that the Member Role Descriptions are issued to Elected Members following the elections in May 2022. Each individual Councillor would then receive the role descriptors specifically for the roles that they would be undertaking.

They will also be published on the Council webpage for prospective candidates for the forthcoming Local Government Elections

Background

This is a set of generic role descriptions and person specifications for elected members. They are applicable in any authority and are made available as suggestions rather than prescription.

The role descriptions set out the responsibilities and functions of the role of the elected member. The person specifications describe the qualities and skills required of the member in the role and can help when considering personal development.

Where members undertake more than one role it is anticipated that role descriptions would be combined. For example: Overview and Scrutiny committee chairs would be expected to undertake the role of, Elected member, Overview and Scrutiny Member and Overview and Scrutiny Chair.

These role descriptions are designed to be used alongside the Welsh Member Development \(Competency\) Framework which describes the skills knowledge and behaviours required of Councillors

This document has been produced collaboratively by the Welsh local Government Association, working with members and officers from all the authorities in Wales. It takes account of all the UK and Wales legislation affecting the role of members, including, most recently, the Local Government and elections (Wales) Act 2021.

Political Group Leader supplementary guidance

The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act places a duty on Group Leaders to take “Reasonable Steps” to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by the members of their group. The following note provides further interpretation of the Act in support of the Group Leaders’ role description.

- Group Leaders have a duty to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by members of their group in a Unitary Authority. This applies to those group members whenever they are acting or giving the impression of acting in their capacity as a member.
- This duty has been introduced by the Welsh Government to encourage high standards of behaviour from members, including civility and respect in all situations and towards all people. The duty is not intended to be onerous and will not cover everyone (clearly those members who do not belong to a group), but rather to be proportionate and helpful and encourage the prevention of inappropriate behaviour before it becomes a breach of the Code.
- All councillors already have a responsibility to report breaches of the Code of Conduct
- The Duty applies to Group Leaders for their group members whenever these members are for example acting on the Council, in political group meetings, in the community and on outside bodies such as Fire and Rescue Authorities, National Park Authorities, Police Authorities, Community and Town Councils, Corporate Joint Committees and school governing bodies.
- In the case of outside bodies, the standards of conduct which apply are those set out by the body on which the group member is serving. If these are not available, the Council Code of Conduct applies.
- The Duty does not make Group Leaders accountable for the behaviour of their members as Conduct must be a matter of individual responsibility. However, Group Leaders must take “Reasonable steps” to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by the members of the group. And must cooperate with the standards committee and any subgroup of the committee in the exercise of the standards committee’s functions. And must have regard to guidance issued by Welsh Ministers on these matters.
- “Reasonable steps” might include Group Leaders:
 - Having informal discussions with and/or requesting training for members who may be showing early signs of inappropriate behaviour to ‘nip this in the bud’ before it becomes problematic or in danger of breaching the Code.
 - Working constructively with Standards committees to report compliance with their duty, any serious concerns about members’ behaviour which have not been remedied by informal actions, and training requirements for themselves and for their group members.
 - Working constructively with and supporting the Monitoring Officer in these matters
 - Acting as a positive role model for members, demonstrating the highest possible standards of behaviour, civility, and respect.
 - Maintaining an awareness of what constitutes very high standards of behaviour, civility, and respect, particularly with regard to equalities and diversity.
 - Working constructively with other group members on the council and on other councils to ensure the highest possible standards of behaviour both in the Council and throughout Wales.

- Welcoming and responding to concerns raised by Group members about behaviour in the group.
- Standards committees have a duty to monitor compliance by Political Group Leaders with their duties and advising, training or arranging to train leaders of political groups on the council about matters relating to their duties.
- Standards committees must give an annual report to council about their work including compliance of group Leaders with this duty.
- The sanctions which may be applied to group members acting inappropriately on an outside body are those set out by those bodies. Where sanctions are not set out, the Council rules apply.
- If a member has breached the Code of Conduct and is suspended, they are only suspended in the capacity as a member of one relevant authority. They would have to be disqualified for it to apply to their capacity as a member of more than one relevant authority. (Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees (Wales) regs 2001)
- “A group leader who fails to comply with the new duty in a meaningful way may potentially be regarded as bringing their office into disrepute, in breach of paragraph 6(1)(a) of the Code” The Public Services Ombudsman for Wales, The Code of Conduct for members of local authorities in Wales May 2021.

Member Champion Purpose and Role

What are Member Champions?

Member Champions exist to provide a voice for traditionally underrepresented groups, or issues which need to be kept at the forefront of council business although they may not be the responsibility of any individual or committee.

Member Champions, (sometimes called lead members) are elected members who in addition to their other council responsibilities make sure that the issue or group that they are championing are taken into account when council policy is being developed and decisions are made. Members act as champions in areas such as children, homelessness, equalities, older people, young people, scrutiny, member support and development, health improvement and anti-poverty. There is a statutory role for a lead member of children's and young people's services with a responsibility for over-seeing the arrangements made under sections 25 and 26 of the 2004 Children Act.

Guidance on undertaking the role with regard to the subject knowledge that members need is sometimes available from the outside bodies associated with the issue being championed for example the toolkit for older peoples' champions from the LGA. Otherwise they will be reliant on their authority for guidance in the subject they lead on and also their role as lead member in this area.

What do they do?

Typically, the lead member will:

- Make sure that their area of interest is taken into account when developing policy or making decisions
- Ask questions about performance and resourcing for the area
- Raise the profile of the area and make the authority aware of good practice.
- Engage with external bodies who work in the area
- Engage with other officers and members in relation to the role.
- Engage with community groups with an interest/stake in the area ☑ Report action to the council

How does their role fit within the corporate structure?

This will vary according to the area/issue that is being championed and how the authority functions. There is potential for confusion and overlap between the role of the member champion and those of the relevant executive member or overview and scrutiny members. The champion role itself could be undertaken by either the relevant executive member or a non executive member.

It is therefore important that members and officers work together to agree roles and action for the area being championed and that there are mechanisms for lead members to report on their activities. It is helpful for the authority to draft a protocol which sets out what powers champions have and do not have, such as whether or not they are able to make decisions on behalf of the authority. Similarly, the appointment of champions varies between authorities, and includes appointments being made by full council meetings or by the leader.

The Role Description

It is difficult to create a role description that fits with the different roles expected of champions and how they operate in the different authorities' structures. The following is a generic model which will require local adaptation, particularly to reflect the difference that may exist between a statutory role, one undertaken by an executive member and a non-executive lead.

Member Champion Role Description

1. Accountabilities

- To Full Council

2. Role Purpose and Activities

Within the Council

- To promote the interest being championed within the Council's corporate and service priorities
- To promote the needs of the client group represented in the interest to the decision makers within the council
- To work with the decision makers in the Council to establish strategies/ policies/work plans connected with the interest
- To maintain an awareness of all matters connected with the interest
- To contribute to good practice and the continuous improvement of services and functions related to the interest
- To engage with members in matters related to the interest such as attending Overview and Scrutiny/Cabinet /Full Council meetings etc.
- Raising awareness of and taking a lead role in the development of all members and officers in relation to the interest

In the Community

- To raise the profile of the interest in the community
- To engage with citizens and community groups in matters related to the interest
- To lead and support local initiatives related to the interest

3. Values

To be committed to the values of the Council and the following values in public office:

- Openness and transparency
- Honesty and integrity
- Tolerance and respect
- Equality and fairness
