| 1 | anonymous | On page 9, 10, 13 they refer to 'Think 21'. This should be 'Think 25', per the Gambling Commission document Guidance to operators for age verification test purchasing (non-remote) (copy attached). Under the list of consultees on pages 39-40, The Bingo Association are not included. They need to be added. | English (United Kingdom) |
| 2 | anonymous | If yes, state – There could be a greater link to the adverse health effects associated with gambling addiction and the need for a harm reduction approach for those affected, with particular focus on early identification, active signposting, referral and intervention. This could be supported by encouraging staff to do brief training on this, such as: https://www.rsph.org.uk/our-services/e-learning/courses/online-course-understanding-and-responding-to-gambling-related-harm.html | English (United Kingdom) |
