Cabinet Portfolio and Cabinet Member:
Cllr Wyn Thomas
Cabinet Member for Schools, Lifelong Learning and Skills

Background

In the academic year 2024/25 Estyn launched a new inspection framework. This includes introducing interim visits of between one and two days to work alongside a shorter full inspection of between three and four days. School inspections have passed positively, and Ceredigion Local Authority are one of the few local authorities in Wales without any follow up requirements, following inspections.

The following schools and non-maintained settings have been inspected in the academic year 2024/25:

Ysgol Henry Richard:
